FOUR MORE SHOT IN DUBLIN; LIVES OF 16 OTHERS SPARED

VILLISTAS REPORTED BREAKING OUT AGAIN; MORE TROOPS MOVE.

COLUMBUS, N. M., May 5.—Small bands of Villistas are creeping out of the foothills in the Guadalupe district, emboldened by the American expedition's inactivity, and renewing their depredations, according to rumors received by the home to-day. The forces which last Friday moved into the mountains and patrolled up to the mountains, is reported to have reassembled.

Four hundred negro infantrymen crossed the border to-day near Gibson's Ranch, New Mexico, en route to relieve troops at Dublin. The Dublin force will move further south. The negroes include a machine gun company.

NATIVES FEAR NEW
PERIOD OF ANARCHY
IF TROOPS WITHDRAW

HEADQUARTERS OF THE AMERICAN EXPEDITION, NEAR NAMIQUEPA, May 5 by wireless to Columbus, N. M., May 5.—News of the contemplated gradual withdrawal of the American expedition has in some mysterious manner reached the natives in this vicinity and is causing many great uneasiness.

They are the Mexicans who have been furnishing stolen beef and other supplies to the expeditionary forces.

A native said yesterday to-day to ask whether the story of the withdrawal is true and whether the Carranzistas and Villistas intend to inflict reprisals upon them.

If the expedition withdraws these natives foresee a reign of terror for surpassing the anarchy of the last five years.
